Re Indianapolis airtel to Director, 10/16/63, with enclosed letterhead memorandum of same date, regarding a meeting of the national committee of the captioned organization to be held at Indianapolis 10/19-21/63. It is noted a news article indicated Oregon was among the states to be represented at this meeting.

For your information and that of the Indianapolis Division, the Oregon Journal, Portland, Oregon daily newspaper, on 8/26/52, contained an article entitled, "New Constitution Party Organized by Portlanders," which disclosed that articles of incorporation had been filed at Salem, Oregon, the state capital, for the Constitution Party of Oregon, a "non-profit group," such articles having been signed by [redacted] all of Portland.

According to the article, the announced purpose of incorporation was "to advocate and promote the purposes set forth in the Constitution of the United States in schools and elsewhere." [redacted] is referred to as having stated that the articles were filed mainly to "protect the name in the event a new political party of conservative Republicans and Democrats is formed in the State," as she believed it would be a good name for such a party. The article further noted that "at the present time there is no party machinery set up and the group is not supporting any particular candidate," according to [redacted] who claimed that Americanization problems have arisen in all organizations and in the schools. She reportedly charged "specifically that some of the textbooks used in the Portland School System" have been "labelled subversive." The article pointed out that [redacted] noted that "the new party may devote its energies at some later date toward improvement of the school system."

On 9/9/52, [redacted] Bureau of Labor, State of Oregon, Salem, advised SA [redacted] that the Constitution Party of Oregon had been incorporated on 8/19/52, and that [redacted] indicated as having been given [redacted] for the organization. [redacted] stated that insofar as he could determine, this organization represented the "ultra-conservative right-wingers."

It is noted no information of pertinent significance is contained in the files of the Portland Office regarding [redacted]

[redacted] who is well known to the Portland Office. Over a period of years she has volunteered security information, some of which has been pertinent and confirmed through other sources. She is publicly known for her strong anti-communist views and over the years has been vocal in her opposition to any person or activity considered by her to be communist-oriented or inspired.

No information has come to the attention of the Portland Office to indicate that the Oregon Constitution Party is an active group. It is noted [redacted] on 10/22/63 telephonically contacted SA [redacted] relative to an unrelated matter. She made no reference to the national committee meeting of the Constitution Party of the US at Indianapolis or to her having been absent from Portland during preceding days, if such were the case.

The report of SA [redacted] San Antonio, dated 11/29/54, concerning captioned case, on page 18, lists [redacted] as a "state correspondent," according to a list published in an undated publication, No. 15, of the Constitution Press, published at San Antonio, and apparently the official publication of captioned organization.

No further action is contemplated.

Re Indianapolis airtel to Bureau dated 10/16/63 with accompanying LHM same date and Miami airtel to Bureau dated 10/14/63.

The LHM accompanying referenced Indianapolis airtel sets forth information stating a national committee meeting of the Constitution Party of the U. S.
would be held in Indianapolis, Indiana, October 19-21, 1963.

Referenced Miami airtel contains information reflecting J. A. MILTEER of Valdosta-Quitman, Georgia, was distributing certain leaflets to a number of trusted people throughout the U. S. in an attempt to have them participate in a meeting to be held in Indianapolis, Indiana, October 19 and 20, 1963. Copies of these leaflets prepared by the Constitution Party of the U. S. were enclosed for the San Antonio Division.
Most of them appear to have been written by MILTEER (supra).

Both referenced communications list San Antonio as OO in this case. A review of San Antonio file in this case fails to reveal any information concerning the above-listed meeting in Indianapolis, Indiana.

SA 100-8085

It is recommended that the San Antonio Division be deleted as OO in this case for the following reasons:

San Antonio airtel to Bureau dated 9/1/56 pointed out that this organization, at least in Texas, appears to be strictly a political organization and appears to advocate and employ legal means to achieve its objectives. It was also stated that further investigation in the State of Texas did not appear warranted.

Los Angeles letter to the Bureau dated 1/13/58 captioned The Constitution Party (State of California), IS - M, reflected that a leaflet apparently issued by the Constitution Party in California pointed out the national headquarters of the Constitution Party was located at 1000 Vermont Avenue N.W., Washington, D. C.

Chicago teletype to Bureau dated 2/2/60 reveals

[redacted] National Committee of Constitutional Parties, used the address of [redacted]

b6

The San Antonio Express, a daily San Antonio newspaper, issue of 10/9/63, contained an article captioned Constitution Party Changes Name, Policies. This article stated in part that the Texas Constitution Party is no more. It pointed out that [redacted] said in San Antonio on 10/8/63 that the Texas Constitution Party is now known as the Texas Conservative Party. The article quoted [redacted] "We changed the party name as we changed our policy. We are switching from a defensive position to an offensive position." [redacted] said that in the past Constitution Party members nominated their own candidates and supported them inflexibly. He said, "Now we will vote for constitutional conservatives. If they happen to belong to another party, we will still support them. If there are no constitutional conservatives on other tickets, we will nominate our own."

SA 100-8085

The article also pointed out that [] stated there is no national Conservative Party as such. He said several other states have had Constitution Parties and that most of these have changed to the conservative label.

b6

The article continues pointing out that the Constitution Party in Texas was founded in 1950 with [] as one of its founders.

From the above there appears to be some question as to the location of the national headquarters of instant organization; however, it is not in the San Antonio Division, particularly since the Texas Constitution Party no longer exists, according to the above-mentioned news article.

LEADS

ATLANTA

Will attempt to determine through public sources and established sources the location of the headquarters of the Constitution Party of the U. S., noting that J. A. MILTEER, Valdosta-Quitman, Georgia, would undoubtedly be in a position to know this since he has been distributing literature of the Constitution Party of the U. S., some of which bore his name. Will advise Bureau of results.

INDIANAPOLIS

Likewise, will attempt to determine the location of the headquarters of instant organization, noting that information may have come out during the October 19-21, 1963, meeting in Indianapolis concerning this. Will advise Bureau of results.

All offices receiving copies of this letter are requested to review their files for information which would resolve the question as to the location of the national headquarters of instant organization.

The San Antonio Division is conducting no further investigation in this matter.

Constitution Party Head Raps Barry

Dr. Arthur G. Blazey, Indiana state chairman of the Constitution Party, last night charged United States Senator Barry M. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) with a "double cross" at the national Republican convention in 1960.

Dr. Blazey made his charges with the announcement of a national committee meeting in Indianapolis at the Marott Hotel Friday through Sunday.

The Washington (Ind.) physician confirmed reports last night that the Constitution Party will start a movement for the presidential nomination of United States Senator Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.) as their avowed candidate in 1964.

However, The Star's Washington Bureau learned last night that Senator Thurmond has informed the Constitutional Party that he will refuse their nomination.

Thurmond answered the party in a letter to Kent Courtney, one of the party's leaders, saying that he would neither accept the nomination nor would he travel to Indianapolis to address the party.

The South Carolinian, a leading spokesman of southern conservatives, was the nominee of the States Rights Party in 1948. Associates said he considers that he should now stand aside to let some other southern conservative carry the standard.

"IN THAT RESPECT, and in that respect only, the Senator is like General Sherman," an associate said. General William T. Sherman rejected the idea of running for the presidency following the Civil War with the flat statement "I nominated, I would refuse to run and if elected I would refuse to serve."

The Washington doctor said the Constitution Party is mad at Goldwater because he "threw in the sponge" at the 1960 convention despite much support. Dr. Blazey said Goldwater gave up to the forces of Richard M. Nixon and Charles H. Percy, chairman of the board of Bell and Howell, famous optical and camera firm, who is now seeking the Republican nomination for governor in Illinois.

Dr. Blazey said: "Goldwater threw in the towel to the forces of Richard M. Nixon, Charles H. Percy and Nelson A. Rockefeller, and even his wife cried over that. He double crossed us."

THE CONSTITUTION Party was organized in Indianapolis in 1960 "to correlate the efforts of conservative voters in all states who have finally realized that we have been denied a two-party system for the past 30 years," Dr. Blazey said.

Thurmond was the States Rights Party's nominee for president in 1948.

Main speaker at the meeting of national committeemen for the Constitution Party will be Lt. Gen. Pedro A. del Valle, United States Marine Corps (Ret.), who lives in Annapolis, Md.

DR. BLAZEY described the general as "one who has not retired from the battle to save this country from such enemies as the United Nations, and current Administration collaborators who want to strip our Republic of all defense arms and resources in order to subject our people to one-world tyranny."

States to be represented are Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Georgia, Maryland, Florida, Re Miami airtel 10/31/63 enclosing letterhead memo concerning meeting of the Constitution Party of the United States in Indianapolis, Indiana, 10/ [redacted] 19/63.

Clarify whether name [redacted] was reported in this fashion by informant (as apparently intended to be [redacted], or whether spelling resulted from error on part of Miami personnel. If latter occurred, error should be scored against personnel responsible.

[redacted] should not be referred to as [redacted] as is done on page one of the letterhead memo; the surname should be used with title.

It appears the Kenneth Goff of Colorado is actually Kenneth Goff. If correct spelling not known to Miami, it should be furnished by Denver.

The letterhead memo should contain a characterization of the Constitution Party of the United States. If such is not available in Miami files, it should be obtained from San Antonio, office of origin.

Miami should expedite the submission of amended pages.

EXCERPTS FROM STATEMENT OF CURTIS DALL, CHAIRMAN
BOARD OF POLICY, LIBERTY LOBBY, WASHINGTON, D. C.
GIVEN BEFORE THE SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE ON AUGUST 10, 1962, IN OPPOSITION TO H. R. 11970

My name is Curtis Dall. I have the honor to be the Chairman of the Board of policy of the LIBERTY LOBBY, 918 East Capitol Street, Washington, D. C. My home is in Chestnut Hill, Pennsylvania.

The LIBERTY LOBBY has today approximately 25,000 supporters residing in every State of the Union and has a circle of influence exceeding 75,000 citizens. LIBERTY LOBBY represents the broad interest of the Sovereign States and the Constitutional rights of the Sovereign Citizens. We do not represent any special interest group. We have come into being to aid the general welfare of this Country. We are not financed by big business and have nothing but the Country's best interests at heart.

In addition today we are privileged to represent at this Hearing by special authorization 253 groups and Civic organizations located throughout the United States, having a combined membership of approximately 1,500,000 members. Time does not permit us to read the name of each of these groups, therefore we have compiled a list showing their addresses, their officers, and the number of members and affiliates each represents, which is set forth in our Appendix "A", herewith attached. Among the organizations we represent today are included church groups, chambers of commerce, county committees of both Republican and Democratic Parties, civic-action groups, labor union, etc. Therefore, we represent with pertinent supporting data an important and alert segment of the American voting public listed in Appendix "A". Verbal statements will follow our completion of this formal written statement which will pin-point our opposition to H. R. 11970.

INFORMAL REMARKS (STENOGRAPHIC TRANSCRIPT, H. R. 11970, FRIDAY, AUGUST 10, 1962, VOL. 13, PP. 1474-76)

"We represent many of the actual owners of them, and so we are not here hat in hand. The issue before us is a very grave one. We say emphatically (sic) no to the ... steps here sought by our Chief Executive, and brand same as tantamount to political grand larceny with respect to personalizing executive power at the expense of Congress and the integrity of our Constitution.

"It is apparent that this project is actually aimed to enrich a few and to create turmoil and unemployment in many of our key industries, and it has been dreamed up and is being pushed by President Kennedy's political bosses and mentors, men who run the council of foreign relations and the business advisory council.

"However, in this case, the real center and heart of this international cabal shows its hand, namely, the political zionist planners for absolute rule, via one world government.

"This is the basic group that financed what is called communism which borders upward on organized Christian society from the bottom. This is the basic group that created and initially financed the council on foreign relations and the business advisory council, which through many of its fronts and with the aid of many of its witting or unwitting stooges operate quietly from the top down, operates on our organized Christian society and on our constitutional republic.

"The political Zionist planners absolute rule via one world government have a countersign. It is power, and make believe. They state that their administrators, I am repeating it, their administrators shall be chosen from among the public with strict regard for servile obedience, and will, therefore, become easy pawn in their game.

"Hence, one wonders if President Kennedy has somehow become a working pawn in their game. The political zionist planners for absolute rule via one world government state that through their controlled press here and in many other countries, they have gained the power to influence while remaining themselves in the shade, and thanks to the press they have got the gold in their hands, notwithstanding (sic) that they have had to gather it out of oceans of blood and tears.

"We call to your attention here H. R. 11970, that if our tariffs can be lowered in a certain area, in a certain industry or if raised that hundreds of millions of dollars can be duly made for a few wealthy insiders with access to advance information in this respect.

"Lower the tariff, sell stocks, raise the tariff, buy them before the news is out.

"For most Americans, however, chaos, unemployment and insecurity will result.

"In effect, President Kennedy would be able to toy with the lifeblood of our economy as if it were a monkey on a stick game. run it up and run it down at will.

"It is not necessary to repeat here the expression Americans wake up. Many Americans at long last have. Hence, Senators, full realization and full retaliation is now the order of the day instead.

"Full retaliation against those unfriendly forces and individuals who seek to tear down and negate the constitution of this, our country. Reprisals in a legal way, if possible, but in any event effective reprisals."

The desire is to have one person in each county who is schooled ~~xxx~~ by the NCP who can help present ~~xxx~~ united front. As to finances - $500. each - it was stated that it ~~is~~ being paid but "we're not paying it".

We are now where our christian founding fathers were, no room for unbelievers - to fight the forces of darkness - who take away our rights and priviledges, give ~~xxxxxx~~ comfort to our enemies and give us taxation and mockery. The invisible government manages the two major political parties. The Council on Foreign Relations have picked the top government officials for years. International Bankers want the debt ceiling raised so they can reap further interest profits. 11 million now for interest soon will be 15 million. The U. N. ~~xxxx~~ is controlled by Marxists . We need to get control of our own affairs.

Chairman intro Wallace Butterworth

Butterworth . . At the proper time 1000,000 men and women in the south will be on the streets of every town to see tha then~~me~~ of Strom Thurman is on the ballot. This is not a third party looking for a deal - they are inbusiness for real- a business party. In 1960 a bargain was struck.. Equal time law was suspended. A great debate was arranged between the two major party candidates. All networks ~~xxxx~~ both TV and radio carried it. All other candidates were not allowed equal time. This time the same deal is being struck but they wont get away with it. the NCP will sue the networks and affiliates in Atlanta and New York. Members were told to sue likewise in every town and station that carried such a program. Appealed for $2500. for leterature to push for Throm Thurman for President.

[redacted] (woman) Have studied politics for 23 years, worked in government ~~dept~~ departments, including working for Mr J. Edgar Hoover.. "I recommend reading of the book "Our Invisible Government", it will tell you who is controlling our government and congress. An appeal was made for 12 women from each state to go to ~~to~~ Washington for a week. To ~~lobby~~ lobby. Each would act in the interest of us all. Would read each bill before passage and influence congressman and ~~and~~ senators how to vote on it. The cantry is run by the Council of Foreign Relations, the U. N. and 30 Rockefeller Plaza.

Introduction of [redacted] of South Carolina.

[redacted]. Has an organization in S. C. - the Draft Thurman Committee - The whole country would so organize.

Introduction of [redacted] from Richmond, Va.

[redacted]... In Virginia a Conservative Council representative operates in each congressional district. In 1960 they fielded a slate and have one ready for the 1964 elections. The petitions are already in the hands of the proper person. 38 states have laws which permit some such action. Get Kennedy out of the White use.

[redacted]..(she spoke briefly two times) Described herself as a christian and gave the christians belief in Christ etc. and as a practical politician. The governed should governed by law and not by Ex. Ord. or Bureau. The ~~Dem~~ Democrats cannot afford to loose any votes as they won the elcection by less than 1 % last time. With the 26 votes the ~~RCX~~ NCP has the election can be theorn in the Congress and with a deadlock in the House the Senate will elect a pice president in secret who will become president ~~xxx~~ March 4. The need is for action. The nearly 100 assembled have the strength of 10,000. The greatest weapon they have is the truth - not being used by the other side.

Calls on [redacted] So. California for an address.

[redacted] points out they are an action group, not an educational group. She stands for action like [redacted] wants the U. S. out of the United Nations. She wants 10 women from each state to be known as initiators and make government their business. They will go to D.C. Will check the bills before congress and discuss with representatives on bills for or against them.

AIMS of the women;
Repeal Federal Reserve act.
Investigate tax and tax foundation
Sever all relations with Communist countries.
Get the U. S. out of the United Nations.

52 weeks in the year and 52 states, one woman would be in D.C. for a week. Lot of work to be done to repeal Federal Reserve Act and they will work on this.

CHAIRMAN DALL. The gist of your lecture is a woman from each state in C.D. at all times to keep check and work on bills, get them and the resolutions passed. Thought it a good idea

Man from Washington State said it would cost $5,000.00 to send 10 women to D.C. for a week and asked how it could be financed.

Speaker said she planned to pay her own way.

He- The project will cost 1/2 million dollars.

She- Have faith.

He said Miss. will vote in Sept 1964 on two sets of electors, one free and one pledged and thinks the whole south will send free electors to the Demo convention.

Some woman said the South meeting at Jackson, Miss. had been run by good men, ministers, ect, who she could believe but she would not believe BOBBY KENNEDY on a stack of bibles. She said they will have to all line up behind one man and she thought THURMAN was the man.

THIS, ladies and gentlemen, is to be a jeremiad.

I am about to inflict upon you an unrelieved, copper-bottomed, six-ply, all-wool, 25-minute howl of calamity about the present moral climate of America. And I am going to talk about our responsibilities therefor as the temporary custodians of America's press.

You may dismiss such fageylath with a tolerant laugh. But the pathway of history is littered with the bones of dead states and fallen empires. Most of them rotted out before they were overwhelmed. And they were not, in most cases, promptly replaced by something better.

Nearly 1,000 years elapsed between the fall of Western Rome and the rise of the Renaissance, and in between we had the Dark Ages in which nearly all of man's institutions were inferior to those which had gone before. I don't want my children's children to pass through a couple of centuries of dialectic materialism before the sun comes up again.

IT IS sad to watch the beginnings of decay. It was sad to see an age of Pericles replaced by the drunken riots of Alcibiades. There was, indeed, just cause for gloom when the Roman mobs, flabby with free bread and bemused by free circuses, cheered for the unspeakable Nero and the crazy Calligula.

Alaric's Goths finally poured over the walls of Rome. But it was not that the walls were low. It was that Rome, itself, was low. The sensual life of Pompeii, the orgies on Lake Trasimene, the gradually weakened fibre of a once self-disciplined people—all these brought Rome down. She went down too early. She had much to teach the world.

And so, ladies and gentlemen, I look upon our own country and much that I see disturbs me. But we are a great people. We have a noble tradition. We have much to teach the world, and if America should go down soon it would be too early.

One thing is certain. We shall be given no centuries for a leisurely and comfortable decay. We have an enemy now—remorseless, crude, brutal and cocky. However much the leaders of the Communist conspiracy may lie to their subjects about our motives, about our conditions of prosperity, our policies and aims, one thing they believe themselves implicitly—and that is that we are in an advanced state of moral decline.

It is a dogma of current Communist faith that America is Sodom and Gomorrah, ready for the kill.

DO YOU know what scares me about the Communists?

It's not their political system, which is primitive and savage. It's not their economic system which works so badly that progress in a few directions is purchased at the price of progress in all the rest. It is their puritanism.

It does no good to comfort ourselves with the reflection that these are the products of endless brainwashings, of incessant propaganda, of deprivation by censorship and jamming of counter-information and contrary arguments. The confidence that they are morally superior is there.

You can't get very far into Russia before the naive questions of your Intourist guide reveal that she thinks she is talking to a soft fop who is ripe for the turbrill and the guillotine. In the schoolyard the children rush up to show you, not their yo-yos, but their scholarship medals. And when you offer them new Lincoln pennies as souvenirs they rip off their little Young Pioneer buttons and hand them to you, proud that they are not taking gifts, but are making a fair exchange.

The Russian stage is as austere as the Victorian stage. Russian literature may be corny, but it's clean, and it glorifies the Russian people and exudes optimism and promise. Russian art is stiffly representational, but the paintings and the sculpture strive to depict beauty and heroism—Russian beauty, of course, and Russian heroism.

AND what of us?

Well, ladies and gentlemen, let's take them one at a time:

WE ARE now at the end of the third decade of the national insanity known as "progressive education." This is the education where everybody passes, where the report cards are non-committal lest the failure be faced with the fact of his failure, where all move at a snail pace like a trans-Atlantic convoy so that the slowest need not be left behind, and all proceed toward adulthood in the lockstep of "togetherness."

With what results? At an age when European kids are studying the human capillary system and discussing the bi-nomial theorem our youngsters are raising pollywogs on the classroom windowsill and pretending to keep store. This is what is known as "learning by doing." We have produced tens of thousands of high school graduates who move their lips as they read and cannot write a coherent paragraph. While our Russian contemporaries, who were supposed to be dedicated to the mass man, have been busy constructing an elite we have been engaged in the wholesale production of mediocrity. What a switch!

I WISH you could have read all the letters I have received in the past few months from disgusted teachers who have tried to reintroduce principles of hard work and integrity in their classrooms over the opposition of the school hierarchies. It is high time that these Ph.D.'d pooh-bahs of John Deweyism stepped forward and permitted themselves to be graded. But no.

You recall that last fall the school board of the little township of Twin Lakes, Wisconsin, dissatisfied with modern primers, announced that it was introducing reprints of 80-year-old McGuffey Readers. Maybe it was making a bad mistake. Maybe the new books and new teaching methods are far superior. Here was a fine chance to find out.

But did the Wisconsin State Board of Education offer a sporting challenge—a one-year test, for example, to see which was the better approach, theirs or McGuffey's? Not a bit of it. The State Board merely moved to deprive Twin Lakes of state aid, to the thunderous applause, I'm sorry to say, of the so-called "liberals."

When was the last time you, as editors, examined the curricula of your local schools? Are your students given the standardized Iowa and Stanford tests, and, if so, how did your schools rank compared to the national average? Do your kids bring home meaningful report cards, or are parents just getting a lot of gobbledegook about adjustments and attitudes? When was the last time you asked to look at any senior English themes? When have you given a fine picture spread to your town's best scholars?

HAVING generally neglected disciplines in education it was quite logical that we Americans should neglect disciplines in art. The great painters and sculptors of the past studied anatomy so diligently that many of them snatched bodies. And today, after many centuries, we stare at the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel or at the walls of the Reichsmuseum and marvel at their works.

But this self-discipline is of little concern to the modern non-objective painter. All he needs is pigment and press agent. He can stick bits of glass, old rags and quids of used chewing tobacco on a board and he is a social critic. He can drive a car back and forth in pools of paint and Life magazine will write him up.

Talent is for squares. What you need is vast effrontery. This is the kind of art that a painter with no ability can paint, and a teacher with no ability can teach. No wonder it's popular at the factory end. But the tiny minority of youngsters who might have the spark of a Titian or a Rembrandt within them stay unencouraged and unrecognized. And our museums are filled with splashes, cubes and blots being stared at by confused citizens who haven't the guts to admit they are confused.

BUT fakery in art is a light cross we bear. Much more serious is our collapse of moral standards and the blunting of our capacity for righteous indignation.

Our Puritan ancestors were preoccupied with sin. They were too preoccupied with it. They were bag-ridden and guilt-ridden and theirs was a repressed and neurotic society. But they had horsepower.

They wrested livings from the rocky land, built our earliest colleges, started our literature, caused our industrial revolution, and found time in between to fight the Indians, the French and the British, to bawl for abolition, woman suffrage and prison reform, and to experiment with graham crackers and bloomers. They were a tremendous people.

And for all their exaggerated attention to sin, their philosophy rested on a great granite rock. Man was the master of his soul. You didn't have to be bad. You could and should be better. And if you wanted to escape the eternal fire, you'd damned well better be.

IN RECENT years all this has changed in America. We have decided that sin is largely imaginary. We are bemused with behaviorist psychology, which holds that abstract things like insight, will and spirit are figments of the imagination. Man, says the behaviorist, is either a product of a happy combination of genes and chromosomes or an unhappy combination. He moves in an environment that will tend to make him good or that will tend to make him evil. He is just a chip tossed helplessly by forces beyond his control, and therefore not responsible.

Well, the theory that misbehavior can be cured by pulling down tenements and erecting in their places elaborate public housing is not holding water. The crime rates continue to rise along with our outlays for social services.

We are far gone in fancy euphemy. There are no lazy bums any more—only "deprived persons." It is impolite to speak of thugs. They are "underprivileged." Yet the swaggering, duck-tailed young men who boldly flaunt their gang symbols on their motorcycle jackets are far more blessed in creature comforts, opportunities for advancement, and freedom from drudgery than 90 per cent of the children of the world. We have sown the dragon's teeth of pseudo-scientific sentimentality, and out of the ground has sprung the legion bearing switch-blade knives and bicycle chains.

Clearly something is missing. Could it be what the rest of the world's children have been given—the doctrine of individual responsibility?

RELIEF is gradually becoming an honorable career in America. It is a pretty fair life, if you have neither conscience nor pride. An angry old judge in Muskogee County Oklahoma, upon his retirement last month, asserted that in his last docket 37 bastardy cases were filed for no other purpose than to qualify for the relief rolls, and that in most cases both the plaintiff and the defendant continued living together while awaiting the next arrival. Any effort to stop this racket brings an immediate threat that federal aid funds will be withdrawn.

The state will give a mother a bonus for her illegitimate children, and if she neglects them sufficiently she can save enough out of her ADC payments to keep herself and her boy friends in wine and gin. Nothing is your fault. And when the city fathers of Newburgh suggest that able-bodied welfare clients might sweep the streets the "liberal" editorialists arise as one man and denounce them for their mediaeval cruelty.

I don't know how long America can stand this erosion of principle. But if we wish to survive maybe we had better do something about the elaborate pretense that there is no difference between the genuinely-unfortunate and the mobs of relievers who gather to throw bottles every time the cops try to make a legitimate arrest. The welfare state that taxes away the rewards for responsible behavior so that it can remove the age-old penalties for irresponsible behavior is building on a foundation of jelly.

FINALLY, there is the status of our entertainment and our literature.

Can anyone deny that movies are dirtier than ever? But they don't call it dirt. They call it "realism." Why do we let them fool us? Why do we nod owlshly when they tell us that filth is merely a daring art form, that licentiousness is really social comment? Isn't it plain that the financially-harassed movie industry is putting gobs of sex in the darkened drive-ins in an effort to lure curious teen-agers away from their tv sets?

Three weeks ago Bill Diehl, the righteously-angry entertainment editor of the St. Paul Dispatch, ran down the list of present and coming attractions, as follows:

Walk on the Wild Side. Set in a brothel.

A View From the Bridge. Incest.

The Mark. A strange young man trifles with little girls.

The Children's Hour. Two school teachers suspected of being Lesbians.

All Fall Down. A psychopathic attacker of females.

Cape Fear. A crazy rapist.

Lolita. A middle-aged man's affair with a 12-year-old.

The Chapman Report. The adventures of a nymphomaniac.

Just think! All this and popcorn, too!

IN A SPEECH a couple of months ago in Hartford, Connecticut, Mr. Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association of America, asked the plaintive question: "Why, despite our unceasing efforts, does the film industry fail at times to have public confidence?"

Then he suggested an answer. The movie people apologize too much, he said. They should take pride in the fact that they have amended their production code. (Mr. Johnston apparently uses the term "amended" when he means a general tooth extraction.)

"What art form," asked Mr. Johnston, "has not had to keep up with the times to reflect contemporary society?"

Well, hooray for Mr. Johnston's contemporary society. Incestuous Americans.

Perverted Americans. Degenerate Americans. Murderous Americans.

How many of these contemporary Americans do you know?

BUT PERHAPS the most intriguing part of Mr. Johnston's speech dealt with newspaper movie ads. It is ridiculous, he said, for parents to complain about bad influence by movies upon their children when all parents have to do is look closely at the ads.

"I have yet to run across a movie ad so subtle," said Mr. Johnston, "that a concerned parent would not know whether the film was suitable for his child."

Well, here is a semantical pole-vault that ought to set a world's record. For the suggestive, half-dressed figures locked in passionate embrace that have been decorating the theatre ads in our great moral dailies are now revealed as a public service, generously paid for by the movie moguls so that parents can be warned!

Last year our advertising manager and I got so tired of Hollywood's horizontal art that we decided to throw out the worst and set up some standards. We thought that this belated ukase of ours might cause some interruption in advertising some shows. But no. Within a couple of hours the exhibitors were down with much milder ads. How was this miracle accomplished?

It seems that exhibitors are supplied with several different ads for each movie. If the publishers are dumb enough to accept the most suggestive ones those are what they get. But, if publishers squawk, the cleaner ads are sent down. Isn't it time we all squawked?

I think it's time we gentlemen of the press quit giving Page 1 play to Liz and Eddie. I think it's time we asked our Broadway and Hollywood columnists if they can't find something decent and inspiring going on along their beats.

AND the stage: Bawdiness has put on a dinner jacket. The old burlesque skits that you used to be able to see at the Old Howard and the Gayety for six bits are now on display in the most lavish Broadway revues at $8.80 a seat.

But perhaps we should be glad to settle for good old heterosexual dirt. The April issue of Show Business, Illustrated, quotes Dr. L. John Adkins, a New York psychotherapist, as saying that in his opinion at least 25 per cent of the persons presently connected with the American theater are confirmed homosexuals.

Even the normally strong-stomached drama critics are beginning to get mad. Howard Taubman, in a lead article in the drama section of The New York Times, recently wrote as follows:

"It is time to speak openly and candidly of the increasing incidence and influence of homosexuality on the New York stage. It is noticeable when a male designer dresses the girls in a musical to make them unappealing and disrobes the boys so that more male skin is visible than art or illusion requires. It is apparent in a vagrant bit of nasty dialog thrown into a show, or in a redundant touch like two mannish females walking across a stage without a reason or a word of comment."

LAST SUMMER an American touring company presented one of Tennessee Williams' riper offerings to an audience in Rio de Janeiro. The audience hooted and walked out. And where did it walk to? Right across the street where a Russian ballet company was putting on a beautiful performance for the glory of Russia! How stupid can we get?

A couple of months ago in Phoenix I attended a tryout of a new play by William Inge. It takes place in the Chicago apartment of a never-married woman whose son by a bellhop has just been released from reform school, and whose current boy friend is being seduced by the nymphomaniac across the hall whose husband is a drunk. I wonder if this show is going on the road around the world.

We are drowning our youngsters in violence, cynicism and sadism piped into the living room and even the nursery. Every Saturday evening in the Gunsmoke program Miss Kitty presides over her combination saloon and dance hall. Even the five-year-olds are beginning to wonder what's going on upstairs. The grandchildren of the kids who used to weep because The Little Match Girl froze to death now feel cheated if she isn't slugged, raped and thrown into a Bessemer converter.

AND there's our literature. I presume we all have our invitations to become charter subscribers of Eros, the new quarterly magazine of erotica at $10 a copy. I got three invitations, so either the Addressograph was stuck or I'm considered a hot prospect.

Anyway, the publisher, Ralph Ginzburg, says this, and I quote:

I think it's time we gentlemen of the press quit giving Page 1 play to Liz and Eddie. I think it's time we asked our Broadway and Hollywood columnists if they can't find something decent and inspiring going on along their beats.

Anyway, the publisher, Ralph Ginzburg, says this, and I quote:

"Eros has been born as a result of the recent series of court decisions that have realistically interpreted America's obscenity laws and that have given to this country a new breadth of freedom of expression."

And what are the dimensions of this "breadth of freedom"? Well, we are assured that Eros' first issue will include an article on aphrodisiacs, a schematic drawing for a male chastity belt, a story about an old New York bawdy house where women copulated with beasts, the latest word on Havana's red light district, and the memoirs of a stripper which, it says here, "is astonishing for its matter-of-factness."

Isn't it splendid that Mr. Ginzburg stands with the frozen ghosts of Valley Forge as a fearless defender of his country's freedom? Ten dollars, please!

THE fast buck boys have succeeded in convincing our bumfuzzled judges that there is no difference between a peep show and a moral lecture. The old eye-poppers which tourists used to smuggle back from Paris under their dirty shirts are now clothed in judicial blessing. A Chicago judge has recently issued a blanket injunction against any one who might try to prevent the sale of Tropic of Cancer to children. Lady Chatterley's Lover and Ulysses are on the paperback shelves right next to the comic books. They can close the bookstalls on the Seine. It's all over at your corner drugstore where the kids hang out.

Don Maxwell of The Chicago Tribune last year asked his book department to quit advertising scatological literature by including it in the list of best sellers. The critics and the book publishers have denounced him for tampering with the facts. I would like to raise a somewhat larger question:

WHO is tampering with the soul of America?

For nations do have souls. They have collective personalities. People who think well of themselves collectively exhibit elan and enthusiasm and morale. Where they low-rate themselves as individuals they will not long remain the citizens of great nations.

Dr. Celia Deschin, specialist in medical sociology at Adelphi college, in a recent article in This Week magazine, says it's time for a new kind of Kinsey Report. She asserts that the late Doctor Kinsey produced a report that was heavily loaded by exhibitionists and that did immense damage to America by peddling the impression that sexual self-discipline neither exists in this country nor is it desirable.

Generally, she says, those parents who are afraid to lay down the law have the most miserable children. Children, she points out, want honest direction and a set of sensible rules to live by. Where these are denied them on the fantastic theory that it's no longer scientific to say No, the kids often develop subconscious anxiety. Much juvenile delinquency springs from a deep hunger for rules. It is a masochistic effort to seek punishment. The child, says Doctor Deschin, abhors a world where everything goes.

Or, as my tough-minded old grandmother put it, "The youngster who doesn't know that there's a Lord in Israel bounces around in a limbo where there is no force of gravity. If you think he's happy you're crazy."

THE time has come to dust off the rule book. The game is unplayable if you're allowed two strikes or six, if you can use a bat or a cannon, and if some days you can have three men on third and other days there isn't any third base at all. We have to stop trying to make up our own rules.

And that goes for all of us. It's time to quit seeking learning without effort and wages without work. It's time we got mad about payola. We should ask the Lord's forgiveness for our inflated expense accounts, and quit pretending that goonery is a human right.

LADIES and gentlemen: do not let me overdraw the picture. This is still a great, powerful, vibrant, able, optimistic nation. Americans—our readers—do believe in themselves and in their country.

But there is rot, and there is blight, and there is cutting out and filling to be done if we, as the leaders of free men, are to survive the hammer blows which quite plainly are in store for us all.

We have reached the stomach-turning point. We have reached the point where we should re-examine the debilitating philosophy of permissiveness. Let this not be confused with the philosophy of liberty. The school system that permits our children to develop a quarter of their natural talents is not a champion of our liberties. The healthy man who chooses to loaf on unemployment compensation is not a defender of human freedom. The playwright who would degrade us, the author who would profit from pandering to the worst that's in us, are no friends of ours.

It's time we hit the sawdust trail. It's time we revived the idea that there is such a thing as sin—just plain old willful sin. It is time we brought self-discipline back into style. And who has a greater responsibility at this hour than we—the gentlemen of the press.

So I suggest:

LET'S look at our educational institutions at the local level; and if Johnny can't read by the time he's ready to get married let's find out why.

LET'S look at the distribution of public largesse, and if, far from alleviating human misery, it is producing the stench and irresponsibility that intensifies it, let's get it fixed.

LET'S quit being bulldozed and bedazzled by self-appointed long-hairs. Let's have the guts to say that a book is dirt if that's what we think of it, or that a painting may be a daub if the judges unwittingly hang it upside down. And if some beatnik welds together a collection of rusty cog-wheels and old corset stays and claims it's a greater sculpture than Michelangelo's "David" let's have the courage to say that it looks like junk and may well be.

LET'S blow the whistle on plays that would bring blushes to an American Legion stag party. Let's not be awed by movie characters with barnyard morals even if some of them have been photographed climbing aboard the Presidential yacht. Let us pay more attention in our news columns to the decent people everywhere who are trying to do something for the good of others.

IN short, let's cover up the cesspool and start planting some flowers.

WELL, that's the jeremiad: I never dreamed I'd go around sounding like an advance man for Carry Nation. On some people I still think bikinis look fine.

But I am fed up to here with the educationists and pseudo-social scientists who have underrated our potential as a people.

I am fed up to here with the medicine men who try to pass off pretense for art and prurience for literature.

I am tired of seeing America debased in the eyes of foreigners.

And I am genuinely disturbed that to idealistic youth in many countries the fraud of Communism appears synonymous with morality, while we, the chief repository of real freedom, are regarded as being in the last stages of decay.

WE can learn a lesson from history. Twice before our British cousins appeared to be heading into a collapse of principle, and twice they drew themselves back. The British court reached an advanced stage of corruption under the Stuarts. But the people rebelled. And in the wild days of George IV and William IV, it looked as though Britain were rotting out again.

But the people banged through the reform laws, and under Victoria went on to the peak of their power.

In this hour of misbehavior, self-indulgence and self-doubt let this be the story of America. Unless I misread the signs a great number of our people are ready. Let there be a fresh breeze, a breeze of new pride, new idealism, new integrity. And here, gentlemen, is where we come in.

We have typewriters.

We have presses.

We have a huge audience.

How about raising hell?

KENNETH GOFF also spoke at the meeting, stating he was not in agreement with the policies of this organization and was resigning as a member.

RE: CONSTITUTION PARTY OF THE UNITED STATES

[REDACTED] also spoke at the Saturday meeting and informed those present that he had a powerful backing from the Citizens Council of Georgia.

The source used in referenced letterhead memorandum was recontacted 11/7/63, to clarify identity of the senator from S. C. Source stated he intended to say Senator STROM THURMOND and not Senator TOM THURMAN.

A review of Miami files reflects no characterization available for the Constitution Party of the United States.

Based on San Antonio letter to the Bureau, 10/29/63, it would appear no characterization has been prepared for the Constitution Party of the United States. However, San Antonio is requested to review their file 100-8085, for a characterization of the Constitution Party of the United States. If characterization available, will furnish appropriate copies of same to the Bureau, Miami and listed Offices. If no characterization available, San Antonio is requested to immediately advise the Bureau and listed Offices.

Referenced Bureau airtel requests Miami to obtain a characterization of the Constitution Party of the U. S. (CP US) if such is not available in Miami files.

The San Antonio Division has never prepared a characterization of CP US. Although in the past San Antonio has been carried as origin in this case, the last investigative report submitted by San Antonio in this case was report of SA [redacted] [redacted] dated 11/29/54; by letter to the Bureau 2/23/55 San Antonio advised that all outstanding leads in this case had been reported and the case was being closed.

In view of this and from review of San Antonio file, any data incorporated by San Antonio in a characterization of instant organization would be from investigative reports written in 1954; therefore it would appear such a characterization would not be up to date or complete and possibly obsolete in view of information recently obtained by the Indianapolis, Miami, and Louisville Divisions.

It is noted Indianapolis designates Philadelphia as Office of Origin in captioned matter without Bureau authority. It is also pointed out that Paragraph 5, Page 6, of referenced Airtel states that San Antonio letter, 10/29/63, advised that the organization appears to be a strictly political organization employing legal means to further achieve its objectives. The Bureau has stated in the past that if an organization merely has unpopular political beliefs and is not subversive or in violation of Federal law, that the organization is not to be investigated.

UACB, Philadelphia is not opening a case on captioned organization. Philadelphia has or will open cases on individuals residing in the Philadelphia territory to obtain at least preliminary background information and determine whether full investigation is warranted for reasons other than membership in the Constitution Party.

The same number of copies of this memo are being forwarded to each office as were designated by Indianapolis in referenced Airtel.

All offices should comply with the leads set forth in re Indianapolis airtel to simply check indices on the various persons listed who are allegedly connected with the Constitution Party of the United States. Any derogatory information should be furnished to the Bureau in letterhead memo form using the above caption and a short preamble should be used indicating that the person attended or had some other connection with the subject organization as set forth in the letterhead memo which accompanied the Indianapolis airtel on 11/4/63.

At the present time there does not appear to be sufficient reason to investigate this organization as a hate organization under the criteria of Chapter 122 of the Manual of Instructions. The only indication of any suggested violence was the information concerning J. A. Milteer of Georgia, and it was indicated that J. A. Milteer was disillusioned with the subject organization.

November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party to be known as the United White Party." The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP) reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.
